

Love and Courage

[Credit for answers: GLEEEboy on Quizlet]

[Picture description: Group of men fighting in farm]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about a woman who

Answer: Demonstrated great courage in wartime

2. At the end of the selection what surprised Belle enough for her to almost faint

Answer: She saw her husband who had returned safely.

3. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that supports the author's view that Belle had determination.

Answer: It seemed almost too much to endure; but i resolved to make the trial

4. The disheartened Union army regiment was helped by which two following?

Answer:

- A pair of gunboats
 - Additional troops
-

5. What probably happened when the gunboats of the federal army arrived.

Answer: The gunboats started firing on rebel troops

6. In describing a civil war hospital, you could say the.....

Answer: Methods were primitive but surgeons did their best

7. What is the most likely reason why belle continued to make breakfast while the camp was under attack.

Answer: She wanted the men to eat before leaving for battle

8. Place the following events in order.....

Answer:

1. Belle joins her husband on the front lines
 2. Belle begins keeping a journal detailing army life
 3. General Grant starts starts a campaign against the south
 4. Belle boards a streamer headed to pittsburgh
-

9. In this except, what does the phrase "soon to be mustered out" indicate about soldier

Answer: The soldier was dying

10. Based on this except, which sentence describes the outcome of the battle of shiloh

Answer: Union troops at first retreated, but then turned around to win

Offerings From The Heart

[Credit for answers: Samuel_M08 on Quizlet]

[Picture description: Two gold presents in a pocket]

RATE 5 STARS

1. The selection is mainly about

Answer: Two poor people whose love for each other makes them rich

2. Which two things made Jim's watch such a beloved object

Answer:

- It had been passed down in his family
 - It always kept perfect time
-

3. Put the following events from the Christmas Eve gift exchange in the correct order, starting with the earliest

Answer:

1. Jim discovered that Della had cut her hair.
 2. Della was sad that she could not use the combs from Jim.
 3. Della presented Jim with the Watch chain as a gift.
 4. Jim told Della he sold his watch to buy her combs
-

4. In this selection, the author compares Della and Jim, a very poor couple, with the Queen of Sheba and King Solomon, a very rich couple why?

Answer: The author wants to show that, in some ways, Della and Jim are just as rich, but in other ways.

5. The author breaks some formal grammar rules, using incomplete sentences and starting other sentences with "but," "and," and "or." How does this affect the selection?

Answer: It sounds more like speech, making the story feel as if it is being spoken by a person.

6. From what you have read, you can tell that Della and Jim lived in Answer: A modest apartment.

7. Choose the sentence in this excerpt in which Della shows how sad she feels about cutting her hair.

Answer: Once, she hesitated for a minute, and stood still while a tear or two splashed on the worn red carpet.

8. From what you have read, why did Della's Joy turn to sadness when she opened her gift

Answer: She could no longer use the combs she had long wanted.

9. Della thinks Madame Sophie will buy Della's hair most likely because

Answer: Madam could use the hair to make wigs to sell in her shop.

10. What is Matt when the author states that Madame lifted Della's silky hair with a practiced hand?

Answer: Madam has cut people's hair many times before.

Human vs. Artificial Intelligence

[Credit for answers: angelica0491 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: A battle between human and artificial intel.

2. Choose the sentence in the excerpt that explains why a computer could be such a capable chess opponent

Answer: They developed a special code that allowed the comp. to calculate...

3. What words best describe Kasparov's state of mind during his losing match

Answer: stunned and tense

4. Based on this selection, which two words could be used to describe a computer's thinking process

Answer:

- Rigid
 - Predictable
-

5. Why does the author refer to Deep Blues as "another beast"

Answer: It represented a mighty opponent to defeat

6. Humans and computers are alike when playing chess because they both

Answer: Evaluate each move and its effect on the outcome of the game

7. The author back up his statement that computers are not considered as creative as humans by pointing out

Answer: A computer can do only what humans have programmed it to do

8. Why was Kasparov's loss to Deep Blue so surprising

Answer: He had defeated Deep B and other computers in the past

9. Based on this excerpt, what did kasparov mean when he said of Deep B that he would "personally tear it to pieces"

Answer: If Deep B continued to play in chess competitions, he would beat it

10. What does that excerpt tell you about human brains and comp. intel.

Answer: Human brains have the ability to be creative and imaginative

Let the Games Begin!

[Credit for answers: Lawsha20 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What's the main idea of this selection

Answer: The Paralympics is for people with disabilities

2. This selection explains how the Paralympics began. Put these event in order from first to last

Answer:

1. Dr. Guttmann opened a spinal injuries center in England.
2. Dr. Guttmann organized the first competition for athletes in wheelchairs.
3. The International Stoke Mandeville Games were founded.
4. The name of the Events was changed to the Paralympics

3. The prefix "para" in the paralympics means

Answer: "beside" or "alongside"

4. Which two statements about the Paralympics are correct

Answer:

- They begin after the Olympics have ended.
- They take place in the same location

5. An athlete can try put for the Paralympics if judges believe he or she

Answer: Has a disability that would affect his or her ability to compete in the Olympics

6. Athletes in the Paralympics are organized into sport classes. the goal is to have each class include athletes who

Answer: Have similar disabilities

7. For sports related to running, athletes with vision problems are in one of three groups: T11, T12, or T13. What do the numbers in these groups mean?

Answer: The lower the number, the more serious the disability.

8. Based on what you have read, what does this image show?

Answer: A Paralympic runner and a guide using the buddy system.

9. The text states that the guide in the buddy system is very important to the runner's process. Which two sentences from the text best supports this?

Answer:

- The runner and the guide train together so that they can understand each other's style.
 - If the runner wins a medal, the guide also wins one.
-

10. The genre of this selection can best be described as

Answer: Informational nonfiction

The Treasures of Asgard/The Apples of Idun

[Credit for answers: HimikoToga-Answers on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea of the selection?

Answer: A noted trickster uses his mischievous spirit to get himself into and out of trouble

2. What does the phrase "give me my fill" mean in this excerpt?

Answer: To satisfy hunger with food

3. By eating the apples of Idun, the gods were able to

Answer: Avoid any signs of aging

4. What does this excerpt tell the reader about Loki's character?

Answer: He lets mischievous nature take over his good judgment

5. According to this excerpt, the main factor in Loki's success as a trickster was that

Answer: Other people were good and did not expect him to wrong them

6. In this excerpt, the author creates a mood of

Answer: suspense

7. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that contains two figures of speech called similes.

Answer: Now his flight becomes like the flash of lightning for swiftness and like the rushing of clouds for uproar

8. Based on this excerpt, how did the council members realize that Loki was responsible for the loss of the apples?

Answer: They investigated his movements on the day Idun disappeared

9. For Loki, why would he consider his "trick" to have been a success?

Answer: He was able to tease the gods by their upsetting lives.

10. Read the following excerpt. In today's society, Idun's husband would most likely have which to types of jobs?

Answer:

- Writer of musical scores
- Performer in operas

William and the Windmill

[Credit for answers: Lawsha20 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about how William

Answer: Built a windmill to bring electric power to his village.

2. When the drought was over, William planned to enter high school, but did not. Why not?

Answer: His family didn't have the money to pay the school fees.

3. In this excerpt, what's the purpose of the third sentence?

Answer: It offers an example to support a statement given in the second sentence.

4. A simile is a comparison between two things. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that shows an example of a simile

Answer: They were tall, steel towers with blades revolving like giant fans.

5. Based on this excerpt, what was the most important factor in Williams decision to build the windmill?

Answer: There was plenty of wind in his area to power a windmill

6. How do these two excerpts from the selection work together

Answer: Both illustrate how William found the parts he needed from piles of scraps and junk

7. The selection state's that since there is no work for "windmill" in the language of Malawi, William told the people the windmill was "magetsi a mphepo" what does this mean

Answer: "Electric wind"

8. Based on these two excerpts, the attitude of the people in the village toward William can best be described as

Answer: Doubtful

9. When the windmill was finished, William unlocked the wheel to allow it to turn. The selection states this moment was "his moment" for two reasons

Answer:

- To find out if his experiment would work
 - To show everyone that he wasn't crazy
-

10. In this excerpt, which does the word "marvel" most closely mean

Answer: Look at wonder or amazement

How's Your Memory?

[Credit for answers: pnishtha885 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: Most people are capable of improving their memory if they use a variety of aids and strategies.

2. This selection says that memory is helped by

Answer: Being interested in what you are learning.

3. This type of memory aid is called

Answer: A mnemonic.

4. To increase memory, the author wants to persuade the reader to

Answer: Have fresh air and exercise

5. Infants in this selection were not startled the second time they heard a bell because

Answer: The sound of the ringing bell is in their memories.

6. In this except, researchers believe the first step in the memory process is

Answer: Storing information correctly.

7. Based on this selection, the best thing to do during a momentary memory block is

Answer: To relax and think of something else

8. Which of the following is an example of the strategy of association described in this selection?

Answer: "Mr Whitehead has white hair"

9. According to the selection, momentary mental blocks can be caused by

Answer: Stress.

10. Experts say it is easier to remember something if you "sleep on it" most likely because

Answer: There have been few occurrences at night to interfere with the information you learned.

Drum Beats

[Credit for answers: theylovelex4 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. What is the main idea of the selection?

Answer: A boy reconnects...

2. How did Josh feel after viewing the Wild West movie, and why did he feel that way

Answer: He was upset, because the movie was not...

3. Josh tells Granny Rose that his friends don't understand what it is like to be Native American. What does Granny Rose suggest he do?

Answer: Josh should be himself...

4. Granny Rose says she had to try harder at fancy shawl dancing because she was one of the shortest dancers This tells you that she is the kind of person who

Answer: Does not let obstacles stand in her way

5. A Simple question...

Answer: "Yes, the drum is like the heartbeat of mother Earth," Granny Rose responded.

6. Read these excerpts from the selection. Which two statements are correct based on the information in these excerpts?

Answer:

- Josh's attitude...
 - Granny Rose cares
-

7. Read this part from the text. What does Josh's father mean when he says these words?

Answer: Dancing helps the Cherokee people feel more connected to their ancestors

8. Put the following events at the powwow in the order in which they occurred, first to last

Answer:

1. The drummers begin a slow drum beat
 2. Josh leaps on stage
 3. Josh jumps into short, mid-air poses
 4. Josh sees Granny Rose and Eva in the audience.
-

9. Eva practices fancy dancing and goes to the powwow to watch Josh perform. Based on the information, which two of the following traits best describe Eva?

Answer: Supportive of her friend, open to new experiences

10. The selection is best described as

Answer: Realistic fiction

It's All About Respect

[Credit for answers: Julissa2508 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This story is mainly about....

Answer: The need for respectful treatment.....

2. Which sentence supports the statement that Native Americans....

Answer: The word savages offends many Native Americans because they feel.....

3. In this excerpt, what does the word principles....

Answer: Fundamental guides for action...

4. Which sentence summarizes Teters efforts against the use of...

Answer: She attracted other supporters who adopt..

5. Teters and Alexie are alike in that they both...

Answer: Used their creative talents to challenge...

6. In this excerpt, what does it mean that "Native Americans" had.....

Answer: They had moved around the land as they...

7. According to the story, the feathers of this bird.....

Answer: A tribal elder

8. Which of the following did the supporters of keeping Chief Illnewek use.....

Answer: He was a symbol of the University's....

9. How did the filmmakers reinforce a stereotypical view.....

Answer: By portraying them in demeaning roles

10. What embarrassed Teters children at the....

Answer: The mascot who performed a fake....

The Hidden Ingredient

[Credit for answers: s40049311 on Quizlet]

[Picture description: Image is of factory buildings]

RATE 1 STAR

1. This text is mainly about

Answer: History of humans..

2. Based on this text petroleum is sometimes called

Answer: Crude oil

3. Decomposers like worms break down once living things...

Answer: Speed up the process

4. Which two details from the text explain why crude oil can be called natural and organic

Answer:

- It is made from once living organisms
 - It is
-

5. This selection is an example of

Answer: Informational text

6. Read this part of a text. In the first sentence, what species does the author mention

Answer: Human beings

7. These sentences are from the text. Which one best explains why humans had to stop using open flames for light at night

Answer: Instead they burned fumes at power plants

8. Humans take crude oil from the ground. The author explains that humans also speed up the return of crude oil to Earth surfaces. The author most likely means

Answer: Accidental spills in the ocean

9. How does this image of chewing gum relate to the text

Answer: Some chewing gum includes an ingredient that comes from petroleum

10. Petroleum is a fossil fuel. Read this part from the text and one from another source.
Together these parts explained

Answer: The negative effect of petroleum products on the environment

Sleep Mysteries Explained

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This text is mainly about sleep and

Answer: What causes strange nighttime issues.

2. Read this excerpt. Which two factors can cause people to have trouble keeping their brain in sync?

Answer:

- Level of stress

- Lack of sleep

3. Which of the following sentences from the text best supports the opinion that sleep paralysis is nothing to worry about?

Answer: Scientists know that supernatural creatures have nothing to do with sleep paralysis because they can create such episodes in the lab. Its not that its sounds serious, but dont worry.you already spend two hours paralyzed every night.

4. Which sentence from the selection proves that people today believe in sleep superstitions?

Answer: It all sounds suspiciously like sleep paralysis, but 48 percent of Americans believe UFOS may have visited Earth.

5. Read this excerpt. What causes sleep paralysis?

Answer: People wake up before their REM cycle finishes.

6. In this sentence, the word "repel" means

Answer: to fight.

7. Read this excerpt. Ancient people believed that

Answer: Supernatural beings attacked people in their sleep.

8. From ancient times, many cultures have examples of supernatural creatures that paralyze sleeping humans. Today, we know that sleep paralysis is caused by

Answer: Disruption in people's sleep cycles.

9. Which discovery motivated Eugene Aserinsky to conduct experiments on sleeping individuals?

Answer: His son's different eye movements while he slept

10. In the selection, what does REM stand for?

Answer: Rapid eye movement

11. Read this excerpt. The author begins different parts of the text with a heading. The author's purpose for doing this is to Answer: Show the reader when a new topic is being explained.

Colorful Characters/A Global Art

[Credit for answers: valsdome1 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: The history and popularity of a specific art form.

2. What do these two excerpts have in common?

Answer: Both list popular anime films or shows.

3. Based on this excerpt, which statement best summarizes the difference between super robots and real robots in anime?

Answer: Super robots are fantasy, but real robots are realistic.

4. This image of an anime character shows which common anime feature?

Answer: Overly large eyes

5. Based on what you have read, this selection can best be described as

Answer: Informational nonfiction.

6. "Dubbed" anime has

Answer: English-speaking actors whose voices are recorded over the Japanese characters' voices.

7. Anime is the Japanese word for

Answer: Animated drawings or images.

8. In the 1980s, which two events helped anime spread to new audiences?

Answer: The availability of home video & C.the creation of video games using anime films

9. Satoshi Tajiri, the creator of Pokemon, got his idea from

Answer: Collecting insects when he was a child.

10. In this excerpt, what does the term "short-lived" most closely mean?

Answer: Brief or temporary

11. Anime was invented more than 100 years ago, but almost all of the first anime films ever made are gone. Why?

Answer: They were lost when a powerful earthquake hit Japan.

[Credit for answer: 01officials on Reddit]

12. What effect did the Disney film "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" have on anime?

Answer: It led to a change in animation that used more colors and detailed characters.

[Credit for answer: 01officials on Reddit]

13. "Subbed" anime uses

Answer: The original Japanese voice track and adds subtitles in different languages

[Credit for answer: 01officials on Reddit]

Diving for Survival

[Credit for answers: Samuel_M08 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This story is mainly about a

Answer: Hungry young eagle's effort to satisfy his hunger.

2. Read this part from the text. The author compares Eagle to mature adult Eagles to show

Answer: Why he is not very skilled at diving for food.

3. This previous question asked about Eagle's hunting skills. Based on your answer to that question, which of the following can you conclude

Answer: Eagle will get better at grabbing fish with practice.

4. Choose the one sentence that shows eagle has found some energy

Answer: It seemed to rouse Eagle.

5. Read this part of the text. Which two of the following show how Eagles claws are like tools

Answer:

- The claws clamp tightly onto slippery fish to prevent their escape.
 - Spikes on his feet help him hold on his prey while in flight.
-

6. The author of this text describes Eagle sitting on an unsteady feathered raft in water up to his belly this raft is

Answer: The goose in the water.

7. The resolution of a story is when the main character resolves--or works out--the problem. Based on what you have read, the resolution of this story is when

Answer: Eagle releases his grip on the goose.

8. Read these two parts of the text how does the setting change from beginning to the end

Answer: Stormy weather at the beginning passes and Eagle is warming himself in the Sun at the end.

9. Read this part of the text the authors note shows readers that the Answer: Story about Eagle is made up but it is based on an event that really happened.

10. The author writes that Eagles hunger drove his instincts based on what you have read this reveals that

Answer: Keeping the goose was a matter of survival.

Experiencing What You Eat

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 4 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about how

Answer: Eating mindfully can help people make healthier food choices.

2. Please read this excerpt about Frederick Hecht's study. Compared with the non-mindful group, which two of these outcomes did the mindfulness group show?

Answer:

- Lower blood sugar (glucose)
 - Greater weight loss
-

3. Based on your answer to the previous question, Frederick Hecht's study suggests that mindfulness exercises

Answer: May help people maintain a healthy weight.

4. Based on what you have read, the author of this selection wants readers to understand that

Answer: Research supports the health benefits of paying attention to what you experience while eating.

5. This selection describes Jean Kristeller's study on mindfulness and eating disorders. Based on this excerpt, two key elements of this study are

Answer:

- Learning to eat mindfully.
 - Doing mini-meditations before eating.
-

6. Based on this text, which two of the following suggest that MB-EAT can be used to treat binge- eating disorder?

Answer:

- Participants showed improvements in the areas of self- esteem and depression.
 - Six months after starting the program, most participants no longer qualified as binge-eaters.
-

7. Based on what you have read, the term "mindfulness" refers to

Answer: Being aware of what is going on in the moment.

8. Frederick Hecht's study found that participants who practiced mindfulness lowered their triglyceride levels. Based on what you have read, this may

Answer: Reduce the risk of heart attack and stroke.

9. Please read this excerpt from the selection. Based on what you have read, Frankie Engelking has found that mindful eating can help students

Answer: Discover something new about foods they eat all the time.

10. This excerpt describes two types of cholesterol. Based on this text, Hecht's study showed that mindfulness patients improved their cholesterol levels by

Answer: Increasing HDL

The Chess Prodigy

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 2 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: Mastering the principles of chess can have far-reaching effects on a person's life.

2. Based on this excerpt, what first motivated Phiona's interest in chess to grow?

Answer: The need to plan ahead to survive in both the game and life

3. What does the author mean when he describes Phiona's life as "a twist of fate"?

Answer: It was a random occurrence that she discovered chess while living in a slum.

4. From this excerpt, what can you tell about Phiona?

Answer: She was hardened against the opinions of others.

5. Why was Phiona's lack of success at the 2010 Chess Olympiad not surprising?

Answer: She was younger and far less experienced than most of her opponents.

6. Which sentence supports the author's statement that Phiona is "one of the most promising young players in the world"?

Answer: When Phiona met Garry Kasparov, the world's greatest living chess player, she was the one being honored.

7. Put these events in Phiona's life in order, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. She seldom loses a game at the Junior Championship in Uganda.

2. She wins all the games at a children's tournament in Sudan.

3. Her victories qualify her for the Chess Olympiad in Siberia. but she falls short.

4. She improves her games and does better at the Chess Olympiad in Istanbul.

8. Why does the author refer to Katwe as "a place from which its residents seldom escape"?

Answer: The people are so poor and conditions so desperate that few people have the money to move away.

9. Why did Robert Katende believe that the skills needed for chess would benefit the children he taught?

Answer: It would help them solve problems in their everyday lives.

10. Read these two excerpts. In what ways are Phiona and Kasparov alike?

Answer:

- They both are inspirations to others.
- They both enjoyed the educational aspects of chess.

11. Based on this excerpt, what was the highlight of Phonia's attendance at the conference in New York?

Answer: Meeting Garry Kasparov

It's All in the Pipes/Saving Houses Part 1

[Credit for answers: Baymax_29 on Quizlet]

[Picture description: A pipe being tightened by two wrenches. The upper one is blue and the bottom one is red. On the ground there's another wrench that is black.]

RATE 3 STARS

1. The central focus of this text is to

Answer: Explain what skills are needed to work as a plumber

2. This selection can best be described as informational nonfiction because it

Answer: Provides facts about plumbing

3. Based on what you have read, which statement about apprenticeships is correct?

Answer: Apprenticeships help plumbers become prepared for real-life work

4. Put the steps of a plumber's training in the order that it occurs, from first to last.

Answer:

1. Plumber either goes to vocational school or straight into an apprenticeship

2. Plumber takes basic courses in how to use and care for different equipment

3. Plumber participates in on-the-job training

4. Plumber becomes a journeyman and works towards certification

5. In this text, the author states that sometimes plumbers should attend vocational school before an apprenticeship. Why?

Answer: It teaches plumbers basic and specialized skills

6. Read this excerpt. What are two advantages of plumbers completing an apprenticeship?

Answer:

- Being trained by experienced professionals
 - Learning important skills on job sites
-

7. The author gives the numbers of plumbers working in some U.S. states. Based on these numbers, you can conclude that these states

Answer: Have a huge need for plumbers

8. Choose the two sentences from this excerpt that explain what subjects are helpful for plumbers to learn

Answer:

- Everything from basic addition and subtraction all the way to algebra and geometry will be helpful to plumbers
 - Having some knowledge of science, especially physics, is also very useful
-

9. Which two tasks are master plumbers able to accomplish?

Answer:

- Oversee work sites
 - Design plumbing systems
-

10. This is an image of a welding class, which is a type of class plumbers take during an apprenticeship. How is this image related to the selection?

Answer: Classes help plumbers learn skills they will need once they finish their program

11. Read this excerpt. The author includes a question in this excerpt to

Answer: Help the reader understand questions a plumber may think of in a situation

12. Based on what you have read, which aspect of his job does Andy Evans enjoy the most?

Answer: The ability to make his own decisions

Sumo Wrestling

[Credit for answers: Baymax_29 on Quizlet]

RATE 1 STAR

1. This selection is mainly about a sport that

Answer: Remains basically unchanged since ancient times

2. Sumo wrestlers do not show any emotion if they win or lose a match. Why?

Answer: It would be disrespectful to an opponent

3. Read this part from the selection. Which of the following could best replace the word "isolated"?

Answer: Separated

4. In Sumo wrestling, what is a "topknot?"

Answer: A sumo hairstyle that protects the head from injury

5. Look at this image. What was the primary purpose of this substance during ancient Sumo wrestling matches?

Answer: To prove to the gods that a Sumo match would be a clean match with no cheating

6. This selection is best described as

Answer: Informational writing

7. Which two of the following are rules that young Sumo wrestlers must follow?

Answer:

- Waking up early to do chores
 - Living respectfully and properly
-

8. All these statements about Sumo wrestling are correct. Which one supports the claim that the sport has not changed since ancient times?

Answer: A sumo match begins with clapping hands, stomping feet, and salt thrown around the ring

9. Read this part of the selection. If Japan had been part of mainland Asia rather than an island nation, which of the following most likely would have occurred?

Answer: A form of wrestling would have developed that was similar to other nations' versions of the sport

10. According to the selection, Japan developed a unique culture because

Answer: It is made of islands that are separated from other countries by the sea

11. Put these events in order from life of Hakuho in order in which they occurred, from first to last

Answer:

1. He moved from Mongolia to Japan
2. He was rejected from most Sumo stables
3. He won his first tournament
4. He won the title of "yokozuna"

Martha's Food Blog

[Credit for answers: EndieDragon33 on Quizlet]

[Picture description: A tray that is being filled up with a scoop of vegetables]

RATE 3 STARS

1. What is the main idea in this selection

Answer: Small ideas can influence people all over the world through the internet

2. Why did Martha first start writing a blog?

Answer: To get experience in writing like a journalist

3. Read this excerpt from the selection. If Martha had written her school lunch reviews...

Answer: She would not have enough readers to raise money for Mary's meals.

4. What evidence does the author give to show that all of Martha's experiences...

Answer: Some of her classmates were mean to her

5. What is an educational benefit that resulted from the new school...

Answer: More children attend school everyday

6. How did Martha feel when her school told her she could no longer...

Answer: Disappointed

7. Of the categories Martha developed to compare meals...

Answer: Health and Taste

8. How does the author show the reader how popular...

Answer: By reporting the number of visits and donations

9. Place the following events in the correct order...

Answer:

1. Martha launches a blog about her meals at school.

2. Martha's father tweets a link to her site

3. Martha raises money for a school kitchen...

4. Martha goes to Africa...

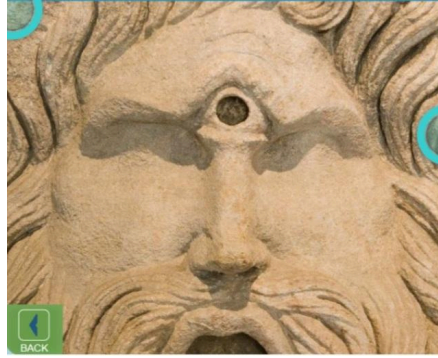

10. What does this excerpt tell you about the children of Lirangwe Primary School

Answer: They do not have access to running water in their homes.

11. Which of the following was most likely a challenge for Martha in keeping up with her blog day after day?

Answer: Finding time in between her other activities to write

[Credit for answer: sportela12 on Wattpad]

A Mighty Giant

[Credit for answers: kidpunl21 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about the

Answer: triumph over cyclops

2. What kind of leader was Ulysses?

Answer: brave, generous, and wise

3. What was the Cyclops' biggest mistake in regard to the oracle who warned him?

Answer: He thought his opponent would defeat him by strength no by wit.

4. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that contains a subtle warning to the Cyclops of what might happen should he not welcome Ulysses and his men properly.

Answer: "We are here to ask your hospitality in the name of Zeus, who rewards or punishes hosts and guests according to whether or not they are faithful to one another."

5. Based on this excerpt, how did ulysses' men escape from the cave

Answer: They hid themselves underneath the rams

6. How does the author use this excerpt to show the theme of hospitality?

Answer: By connecting the monster's punishment to his bad treatment of his guests

7. Read this excerpt. Why was Ulysses so concerned about what kind of host the owner of the cave might be?

Answer: Welcoming guests was a quality...

8. Put the events in Ulysses' escape from the clutches of the Cyclops in the correct order, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. Ulysses' and his men find a big pole in the cave.

2. Ulysses' men sharpen a pole and hide it away.

3. The cyclops...

4. Ulysses offers the cyclops a large quantity to drink

9. Ulysses' difficult journey home was the result of

Answer: Punishment from the gods

10. Think about what you read in this text. Which of the following statements is an example of Ulysses' wisdom?

Answer: Knowing he would be stuck in the cave if he slayed the giant

11. This excerpt answers a question about Ulysses' plot to free his men. What is the question?

Answer: Why did Ulysses tell the giant that his name was "No Man"?

12. Ulysses' judged that the cave he visited was home to a wealthy shepherd. How does the author of this story help the reader understand how Ulysses reached this opinion?

Answer: By describing the abundant contents of the cave

The Science of Slime

[Credit for answers: Samuel_M08 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about how scientists are working to

Answer: Prevent and treat infections caused by biofilms

2. Read this part of the selection what does the second excerpt do

Answer: Summarizes the information in the first part.

3. Read this excerpt from the selection. The author begins this way to Answer: Get the reader's attention by describing something they know about.

4. What two examples from the text show how biofilms can be harmful?

Answer:

- Sticking to the lungs and making it difficult for people to breathe
 - Causing inner ear infections that come back again and again
-

5. According to this text, what is one place in the human body where biofilms help keep people healthy

Answer: Intestines

6. Based on this interview with George O'Toole, which word best describes his attitude towards biofilm research

Answer: Enthusiastic

7. The author describes biofilm as a "colony of bacteria." Which phrase from the text helps explain the meaning of "colony" as is used here

Answer: Forming a group

8. Read this part of the text the room is kept at 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit because Dr. O'Toole

Answer: Wants to trick the bacteria into growing as if it was in a human body.

9. The author of this text interviewed microbiologist George O'Toole, PhD. What is the name for the "slimy colonies" he researches?

Answer: Biofilms

10. Based on this text, when bacteria form a group they become

Answer: Significantly more difficult to treat than individual bacteria.