

Pulling Through

[Credit for answers: loveysmart on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This story is mainly about

Answer: A family's struggle

2. This story is made up..... this story can best be described as fitting into which two genres

Answer:

- Realistic fiction
 - Historical fiction
-

3. The first excerpt is from the U.S. National archives. Which two statements are correct?

Answer:

- The flu deadly power
 - People in rural and urban
-

4. When baby Clara became sick, Anna's mother called the family " a strong lot"..... What did she mean by this?

Answer: The family all survived the flu

5. The first member of the McNaughton family to catch the flu was

Answer: Baby Clara

6. Choose the two that best explain why the flu was so deadly.

Answer:

- Influenza came without warning,

- Instead, the flu slipped
-

7. When Anna became ill, why was Anna father so concerned to discover that she had a bloody nose?

Answer: It was a sign that she may not live through the night.

8. Anna's older brother John had a difficult job..... He would ask, "How many?" How many what?

Answer: Coffins were needed

9. Simile is a figure of speech..... Which phrase in this excerpt uses an example of simile to describe the city?

Answer: Is like a ghost town.

10. Read this excerpt. Why didn't Anna feel like racing?

Answer: She was worried about the deadly flu outbreak.

The Need for Food/Fighting World Hunger

[Credit for answers: detex on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: Both large and small groups as well as individuals can help people who suffer from hunger

2. Put these events in the order in which they occurred, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. Monsoons in Cambodia caused the worst floods in over a decade.

2. The Chin family and many others experienced a hunger crisis.

3. The World Food Program ordered food to be shipped to Cambodia.

4. The food pantry at Stony Brook University opened.

3. According to this selection, what are two reasons why people in developing countries go hungry?

Answer:

- The crops and food resources can be destroyed by natural disasters.
 - The people in developing countries do not have enough money to buy food.
-

4. Based on these two excerpts, you can tell the WFP and the university food program were successful because they provided items that

Answer: The people liked and could cook easily.

5. The need for a food pantry at Stony Brook University arose because

Answer: Many struggling students were skipping meals to save money.

6. Which sentence provides evidence that intervention by the WFP was necessary during the 2011 floods in Cambodia?

Answer: The Cambodian government did not have enough emergency food to meet the needs of flood victims.

7. What does the author mention food drivers?

Answer: To describe a way people can fight hunger in their own communities

8. What would happen if you got 100 questions correct on Freerice.com?

Answer: WFP would donate 1,000 grains of rice to fight world hunger.

9. According to this selection, why is the WFP able to react to a hunger crisis with such speed?

Answer: It maintains stock of food that can be quickly distributed.

10. What are two goals of Freerice.com?

Answer:

- To give free rice to hungry people
 - To provide free education to all people
-

A Unique Talent

[Credit for answers: detex on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about the Answer: Development of beatboxing over the centuries.

2. Put these musical artists in the order in which they appeared in history, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. French troubadours
 2. North Indian musicians
 3. Barbershop quartets
 4. Jazz scatters
-

3. From this excerpt you can tell that the author's view of the future of beatboxing is

Answer: Enthusiastic.

4. What can you say about the popularity of beatboxing over the years?

Answer: It went through a number of ups and downs.

5. What evidence does the author provide to support the statement that Doug E Fresh was a pioneer of beatboxing?

Answer: He created click rolls used by all beatboxers.

6. Rahzel proved he was a unique hip-hop artist by

Answer: Singing and beatboxing at the same time.

7. Which of the following music groups influenced the development of beatboxing styles?

Answer: Barbershop quartets

8. Based on this excerpt, which of the following contributed to the re-emergence of beatboxing in the 1980s?

Answer: Rappers' lack of funds to buy drum machines

9. Based on this excerpt, which of the following two methods did Rahzel use to achieve the unique sounds that made him famous?

Answer:

- Vocal scratching
 - Wind technique
-

10. French troubadours were like today's hip-hop artists because they

Answer: Combined poetry with music to make songs.

Be a Construction Manager Part 1/The Master Juggler-Part 1

[Credit for answers: Lunacgs on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about construction managers and the Answer: Roles they have on job sites.

2. How does the image relate to Bill's career?

Answer: He works with architects to create or change the blueprints needed for a construction project.

3. Read these two excerpts from the text. Which two correct statements can you infer?

Answer:

- Construction managers need to be able to think about multiple things at once.
 - Construction managers needed to be mindful of investors' concerns and needed.
-

4. In this excerpt, the phrase "on the other hand" signals

Answer: An introduction of a new thought.

5. Based on what you read, which two subjects are essential for the construction managers to learn?

Answer:

- Business
 - Mathematics
-

6. Choose the sentence from this excerpt that best explains why having a mentor can be beneficial to future construction managers

Answer: An experienced mentor can be a valuable source of knowledge for managers who are just beginning their careers.

7. This selection can be best described as information nonfiction because it

Answer: Gives facts and details about a specific topic.

8. The most important goal of a construction manager is to

Answer: Ensure that a project is successfully completed

9. In this selection, the author states that "aspiring construction managers also need some on-the-job work experience." What is the most likely reason for this?

Answer: To ensure all construction managers are properly trained to do their jobs

10. Read this excerpt. Based on this part of the text, Bill can be best described as Answer: Tireless.

11. Put these events in Bill's day in the order in which they happened, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. He checked in with several teams at the job site
 2. He reviewed the job site's blueprints
 3. He completed all his items on his to-do list
 4. He met with people from the town.
-

12. In this selection, the author describes Bill's daily routine to Answer: provide an example of the different responsibilities of construction managers.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

13. Why does the author state that "the path to becoming a construction manager is somewhat different from that of other careers in the construction industry"?

Answer: Construction managers have to learn to perform supervising duties.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

The Perfect Wave/Surfing in Science/Cowabunga!!

[Credit for answers: Lunacgs on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection's central focus is

Answer: The different factors that impact surfers.

2. Choose the sentence from this excerpt that explains what obstacles surfers could face while surfing.

Answer: "Besides powerful waves, surfing's other hazards include underwater rocks and other obstacles, sharks, jellyfish, and other animals."

3. Based on what you read, which word accurately describes ancient Hawaiian's surfboards

Answer: Hefty

4. Based on what you have read, why does the author mention that "dropping in" ahead of someone is "both rude and dangerous"?

Answer: It can cause a collision.

5. A simile is a comparison of two things. Which sentence from the selection is an example of a simile?

Answer: Staying loose like a flexible spring to balance and turn, the surf speeds along down the face of the wave.

6. According to this selection, the higher the wave the

Answer: More power that is available to the surfer.

7. Based on what you have read in this selection, what is a problem that surfers need to keep in mind while surfing?

Answer: Dangerous rip currents

8. Read these two excerpts from the selection. Which sentence best states the central idea of both excerpts?

Answer: Weather plays an important role on the waves that surfers experience in the ocean.

9. This selection is best described as

Answer: Informational non-fiction

10. Which sentence best answers the question posed in the first sentence of this excerpt

Answer: Surfers should choose a surf spot based on their level of experience.

11. Read these two excerpts from the selection. Why does the author include them?

Answer: To show the different methods surfers use to surf waves

12. According to the selection, the higher the wave the

Answer: more power that is available to the surfer.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

13. Read this excerpt from the selection. Which word from this excerpt helps you understand the meaning of the word “traction” ?

Answer: slipping

Proceed With Caution/Is There Anybody Listening?

[Credit for answers: Jenniibean on Quizlet]

[Picture description: Picture of ufo in the air blue sky.]

RATE 5 STARS

1. Selection mainly about..

Answer: Search for life in space and the debate about whether it's a good idea

2. Based on this excerpt, what does David Grinspoon argue is the greatest threat to human survival

Answer: Human beings

3. In the past scientists have used SETI to search radio signals from space.. What makes active seti different?

Answer: It would send out radio signals to space with the intention of being found

4. Read this excerpt, Grinspoon uses the word "anti human" to describe his belief that..

Answer: One person should not make a decision that affects the entire human race

5. What are the protocols vakoch.. selection?

Answer: Policies or rules... life beyond earth.

6. Before contacting aliens... choose one sentence that explains the reason for this

Answer: "If we do contact aliens.. interactions peaceful"

7. Based on this selection.. two.. support of active SETI.

Answer:

- Space beings..
 - Humans are already..
-

8. Which one of these.. why author wrote the text?

Answer: Should we actively... to space beings?

9. Based on this selection.. against active SETI?

Answer: Without knowing what space... earth is unwise.

10. Together these two excerpts demonstrate scientists.

Answer: Opposing views on attempting to find alien life.

Behind the Mask

[Credit for answers: michellexespinal on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about how an actor..

Answer: Turned a childhood love of monsters into a successful career..

2. Read this part of the text. The author used words inside parentheses to..

Answer: Provide a definition to the reader.

3. In this excerpt, what does the word "impersonating" mean?

Answer: Pretending to be something else.

4. Read this excerpt. Which statement best summarizes the information in this part?

Answer: Alan Maxson has been fascinated with monsters since he was young.

5. Boris Karloff, Lon Chaney, and Roddy McDowall all..

Answer: Played characters in movies.

6. Read this excerpt. Choose the sentence that best supports the author's claim that being a monster actor is much more difficult than being a regular actor.

Answer: "But you also have to deal with additional challenges, like wearing costumes that restrict your movement and heavy makeup that can take hours to put on."

7. Choose the sentence that explains what actors must be thinking about when wearing a motion-capture suit.

Answer: "When you wear a motion-capture suit, you don't physically see or feel what you look like at that moment, so you really need to focus on the weight and size of your character."

8. According to the selection, a green screen allows..

Answer: Computer-generated images to be used with a character.

9. According to Alan Maxso, which two steps could you take if you think you would like to be a monster actor?

Answer:

- Act in a school play
 - Make short films
-

10. Which two of the following are examples of prosthetics a monster actor may wear?

Answer:

- Werewolf snout
 - Scaly skin
-

11. How does this image of Boris Karloff relate to the selection?

Answer: He was famous for playing a monster in 1930s movies.

Born to Dance/Deborah Dawn: Ballerina/Gracing the stage

[Credit for answers: rosiii7 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about Deborah Dawn and her

Answer: Life long ballet career

2. Put these events from Deborah's life in order in which they occurred, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. Deborah began dancing on pointe.

2. Deborah broke her leg and could not dance for 6 months

3. Deborah enrolled in the school of American Ballet year round

4. Deborah joined the Joffrey Ballet Company

3. At age 11, Deborah won a scholarship to attend a ballet summer camp. She did not go because she

Answer: Was so young

4. What does the phrase "all star, no star" mean in this excerpt?

Answer: Everyone in the company gets a chance to perform.

5. Deborah once said that being happy is just as important as (Question might be written differently)

Alt ver of question: Deborah would say that having a positive attitude in ballet is just as important as

Answer: Physical health

6. Why does Deborah advise students to "be honest with your injuries"?

Answer: To help them avoid getting seriously hurt

7. As a teacher, Deborah could be described as

Answer: Fair

8. Read this excerpt. The author includes this story to show that

Answer: Anyone can dance, even some who cannot see

9. What is most unusual about Deborah's career today?

Answer: She is still dancing even in her mid-40s

10. What would be another good title for this selection?

Answer: Dancing through life

11. What do these two excerpts have in common?

Answer: They both include Deborah's advice to young dancers

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. Choose the one sentence in this excerpt that contains the figure of speech called a metaphor

Answer: "Dancers come in all shapes and sizes," says Deborah. "Like America, the company was a melting pot, welcoming differences."

[Credit for answer: Me!]

13. In her teen years, Deborah had difficulty balancing which two things?

Answer:

- School work

- Ballet

[Credit for answer: Me!]

An Explosive Job/Fireworks Shower the Skies with Science

[Credit for answers: mackjay33 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about the history of fireworks and the...

Answer: Role of science, engineering, math, and art in creating a fireworks show.

2. According to the selection, fireworks designers use computers to...

Answer: Preview the displays and adjust them as needed.

3. Look at this image of a fireworks display. Based on what you have read, which aspect of this fireworks display involves knowledge of chemistry?

Answer: The color the fireworks give off when they explode.

4. Choose the one sentence from this excerpt that explains the importance in a fireworks show of "choreographing."

Answer: "With music, crowds get more emotionally involved in the show."

5. Read this sentence from the selection. The word "emit" most closely means...

Answer: release.

6. According to the selection, becoming a fireworks technician usually requires...

Answer: Certification by local or state authorities.

7. Which sentence from the selection is an example of metaphor?

Answer: "Our fireworks are the icing on the cake."

8. What motivated ancient people in China to throw bamboo stalks into fire?

Answer: They believed it would keep evil spirits away.

9. Read this excerpt. What role does an oxidizer have in creating fireworks?

Answer: It helps fuel burn more quickly.

10. Which sentence from the selection confirms why companies want to replace perchlorates in fireworks?

Answer: "If some of those oxidizers are left over when a shell explodes, they can drop into waterways or onto soil and affect animals and plants living or growing there."

11. Stephen Vitale compares a firework show to staging a play. Which statement best explains this analogy?

Answer: Just as a play moves from scene to scene, a fireworks show has a beginning, middle, and end.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. Based on these two excerpts from the selection, which statement is correct?

Answer: Designing fireworks involves a lot of trial and error

[Credit for answer: Me!]

Cesar Chavez: A Latino Hero

[Credit for answers: kvng_fitch on Reddit]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This section is mainly about Cesar Chavez and

Answer: His efforts to improve conditions for migrant farm workers

2. Which two men did Cesar Chavez consider his role models?

Answer: Martin Luther King, Jr. and Mahatma Ghandi

3. Chavez was similar to King and Gandhi because they all believed that

Answer: Violence is not the way to achieve social change

4. Migrant farm workers in this selection described this tool as a

Answer: Back-breaker

5. The boycott of table grapes led by Chavez

Answer: Took years of protest to achieve its goals

6. Which of the following statements describes Chavez's plan to give farm workers a voice?

Answer: There is strength in numbers

7. According to this selection, why did Chavez describe his time in the Navy as "the two worst years of my life"?

Answer: He had expected to learn marketable skills but ended up performing menial labor

8. What does this excerpt tell you about the landowners BEFORE the UFW was organized?

Answer: They disregarded their workers' health

9. Which sentence supports the statement that Chavez is an icon in the Latino community?

Answer: He had streets and... named after him

10. Put these events in Chavez's life in the order...

Answer:

1. Chavez is hired
 2. Chavez Coordinates
 3. California passes a landmark
 4. California farm workers
-

11. Chavez demonstrated his determination...

Answer: Spending his life savings to start a union

12. Why does the author include this information in the selection?

Answer: To show how Chavez's became....

[Credit for answer: TheNicestkid on Reddit]

Christa McAuliffe: Astronaut

[Credit for answers: Laritzac on Reddit]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea

Answer: A teacher inspires a generation...

2. What was Christa's reaction to being zipped..

Answer: She made herself comfortable

3. When Christa first heard about the teacher...

Answer: supportive

4. For which two reasons was Christa selected..

Answer:

- She was a compelling and clear communicator
 - She had a plan to work on a journal in space
-

5. Why did Christa feel like this animal?

Answer: She had to undergo many...

6. In this excerpt, what does the phrase "she demonstrated her worth" mean?

Answer: Christa possessed the traits that would contribute to a successful space mission

7. Why did the de-stuffed frog, Fleegle, have to be vacuum-packed?

Answer: To decrease the amount of space it took up

8. Which factor was the main cause of the Challenger disaster?

Answer: Fuel escaped from the...

9. What was one of Christa's first..

Answer: Remaining inside a small enclosure

[Credit for answer: bellamiann on Reddit]

10. Put these events in order..

Answer:

1. A ground crew..
2. Three main...
3. Thick black smoke..
4. The cheers

[Credit for answer: bellamiann on Reddit]

11. Choose the sentence

Answer: Fragments of the shuttle rained..

[Credit for answer: bellamiann on Reddit]

12. What was different from other launches....

Answer: The temperature was colder than usual

[Credit for answer: 9aaxxx on Reddit]

The Rule of King Arthur

[Credit for answers: detex on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: Boy who unexpectedly becomes king

2. The times before and during King Arthur's rule were different because he took the realm

Answer: From chaos to order

3. Why were the lords not willing to accept Arthur as their next king?

Answer: They thought he was too young and common

4. Which were the two major activities of the Knights of the Round Table?

Answer: Traveling the land seeking adventure performing good deeds for anyone in need

5. Which of the following sentences shows Sir Hector is a "doubter"?

Answer: He asks Arthur to pull the sword from the stone again.

6. What evidence does the selection provide that Arthur made a good king?

Answer: He restored order and ruled with fairness

7. Based on this excerpt, what can you say about Sir Kay?

Answer: His ambition got the better of him.

8. Which quote represents an important change in the plot?

Answer: "I am not your father nor related to you"

9. By finding a sword for his brother, Arthur showed that he was"

Answer: Resourceful

10. Arthur became a king as a result of

Answer: A miracle

The World of Soccer

[Credit for answers: oli42908 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about soccer and the Answer: Group that organizes the sport's competitions around the world.

2. Tone is an author's attitude toward a topic. In this excerpt, the author's tone is

Answer: Serious.

3. The previous question asked about the author's tone in an excerpt about players who get red cards. Which sentence from the selection indicates a similar tone?

Answer: These rules are designed to keep players safe by keeping the games fair and punishing bad behavior.

4. This author most likely wrote this selection to Answer: Inform the reader of the history of the FIFA World Cup.

5. According to the author, a player who argues with an official will most likely

Answer: Be given a yellow card.

6. In a FIFA World Cup tournament "bid" presentation, what two topics do presenters for each country need to discuss?

Answer:

- Why soccer fans would want to visit their country
 - What cities could host the tournament games
-

7. In 1983, the original FIFA World Cup trophy was stolen. FIFA addressed this problem in which two ways?

Answer:

- By creating a new World Cup trophy and locking it up
 - By designing a replica to give winners
-

8. After World War II, what was unique about Germany's involvement in the World Cup?

Answer: Germany was divided into two countries and had two teams in the tournament.

9. Choose two sentences from this excerpt that explains the potential benefit to countries that host the FIFA World Cup tournament.

Answer:

- While hosting the World Cup can be costly, it can also make FIFA and the host country a lot of money.
 - In 2018, Russia reported that it would make $31 billion by the end of the tournament.
-

10. Read these two excerpts from the selection. How does Excerpt 1 relate to Excerpt 2?

Answer: Excerpt 1 describes a problem, and Excerpt 2 explains a solution.

11. Based of what you have read, this selection can best be described as

Answer: an informational text.

A Series of Unlucky Events/A Preacher Tries Farming

[Credit for answers: ella_pierre on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the central idea of this selection?

Answer: A pioneer family discovers that life on a farm is anything but easy.

2. The family in this selection had a series of unfortunate events. Place these events in the order in which they happened, from first to last.

Answer:

1. The father discovered that the family's onion crop was rotting.
 2. The milk and butter were ruined when the cows ate the rotten onions.
 3. The oxen spilled the wagon load after getting upset by a dead animal.
 4. The molasses barrels leaked half of their contents in the wagon.
-

3. Based on this excerpt, another word for "prosperity" is

Answer: Success

4. Read these two excerpts. Based on the text, which two of the following words best describe the father?

Answer:

- Level-headed
 - Resourceful
-

5. Read this excerpt. What is the author's main point in this passage?

Answer: The preacher's plan to have a second job as a farmer was working out fine.

6. This image shows an onion harvest. How does this image relate to the author's childhood experience on a farm?

Answer: A rotten onion crop set off a series of unfortunate incidents that led his father to quit farming.

7. Father repeatedly responds to problems by saying things like, "Well, well, that's too bad."
What does this dialogue reveal about father?

Answer: He is stable and consistent

8. Read these excerpts. Just when they thought the molasses was safe, the author's little sister turned the spigot handle. if the bung hole was higher, what might have happened?

Answer: They would have lost less molasses.

9. When the molasses sprung a leak, the author writes that his father urged the oxen to "the top of their speed." Why did he add "which was about three miles per hour?"

Answer: He is suggesting that even at their fastest the oxen might be too slow to save the molasses.

10. Which sentence from the text shows why father decided to butcher the cow?

Answer: So there was the milk, butter, eggs, and chicken dinners- -gone with the wind.

11. In this excerpt from the selection, why does the author add the comment in parentheses, "which was about three miles per hour?"

Answer: He is giving the idea that, even at their fastest, the oxen will be too slow to save much molasses.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. George Strester is the author of this selection about pioneer life on his family's farm. His personal narrative can also be called

Answer: A biography

[Credit for answer: Me!]

13. Read this excerpt. Which sentence summarizes this paragraph?

Answer: The family enjoyed an abundant harvest their first season.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

14. What happened to the last of the family's molasses?

Answer: The container exploded, spewing molasses all over the house.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

15. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that shows the family is taking over a farm that someone gave up without ever intending to return.

Answer: There were about five acres of land that had been plowed before by some settler who had abandoned the place before we came.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

16. Place these events from the selection in order from first to last to show the family's process for making molasses.

Answer:

Plant a crop of sorghum.

Harvest the stalks or canes of the sorghum.

Grind the cane in a crushing mill to extract the juice from the..

Boil the juice down to make molasses.

17. Tone is how the author feels about the topic. What is the author's tone in this selection about his childhood?

Answer: straightforward

A Diamond in the Rough/Diamonds: Fortune and Misfortune

[Credit for answers: ella_pierre on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: The cost and availability of diamonds have changed over the years...

2. Which quality of diamonds is most valuable in their use for industry?

Answer: Hardness

3. Diamonds are sometimes viewed as symbols of love. What fact about diamonds runs counter to this view?

Answer: Diamonds have been the cause of violence and brutality.

4. According to this selection, which of the following factors increased the demand for diamonds by regular people?

Answer: Diamond rings became symbols of couple's engagement.

5. In this excerpt, what is the author's purpose in including a description of the Kimberley Process?

Answer: To inform the reader about increased regulation of diamond sources to eliminate violence.

6. Based on this excerpt, at this point in history which two qualities cause diamonds to be expensive?

Answer:

- They were precious.
 - They were rare.
-

7. Choose two sentences in this excerpt that illustrate the two shapes in which diamonds exist over the course of their creation, before being shaped further by people.

Answer:

- "They form huge shafts, shaped like carrots, when carbon deposits are subjected to enormous heat and pressure"
 - "Over many thousands of years these shafts break into large and small fragments"
-

8. How did Schalk van Niekerk probably feel when he learned the value of the stone he has sold to Jack O'Reilly for a low price?

Answer: Regretful

9. What led to the initial discovery of large numbers of diamonds in South Africa?

Answer: A young boy picked up an unusual stone.

10. What evidence does the author give to support the conclusion that experts were wrong about the formation of diamonds.

Answer: Many more diamonds than expected were found in Africa

11. In this excerpt, what is the meaning of the word "means?"

Answer: incomes

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. Based on these excerpts, what are two negative aspects of the diamond industry?

Answer:

- The working conditions and wages of diamond miners have often been horrible
 - The money earned from diamond mines has been used to fund violent wars

[Credit for answer: Me!]

Innovative Technology/Real Sports, Virtual Reality/VR Sports

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. The central idea of this selection is about how VR technology

Answer: Keeps changing to include more experiences and opportunities for the people who use it

2. Read the excerpt. The author includes this excerpt in the selection to

Answer: Help with visualizing what it would be like to watch a game using VR

3. According to the text, which two of the following statements best explain the downsides of being a sports fan?

Answer:

- Watching games on television makes it hard to feel like you are part of the action.
 - It is difficult to see the sport being played if your seats are far from the entertainment.
-

4. Read this excerpt. This excerpt is being told through which point of view?

Answer: Second-person point of view

5. Read this excerpt. Choose the sentence that shows VR can be useful in areas other than sports.

Answer: "People are using VR to perform surgery, explore distant planets, engineer and design new products--even to make people more understanding of others."

6. Chris Kluwe thinks professional football players should use VR and AR during games to Answer: Allow athletes to play smarter and safer.

7. According to the selection, why are some people afraid to step off the edge of a virtual cliff?

Answer: Part of their brain believes they will fall.

8. Based on these two excerpts, how is VR different from 2D video?

Answer: VR allows players to feel like they are in the game, whereas 2D allows players to watch as if they are on the sidelines.

9. Supports the author's claim that VR could shift the belief that video games In the following paragraph, choose the sentence that best do not require enough physical activity.

Answer: "This means you can put on a headset and move around a room, controlling the game with your body, instead of just sitting on your couch, smashing buttons on a controller."

10. Think about what you have read. Which two statements about VR are correct?

Answer:

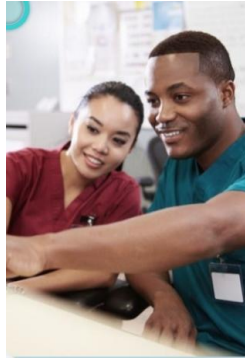

- Doctors are using VR to perform surgery on patients.
 - Athletes use VR to train and play better in their sport.
-

11. Some people do not consider gaming a sport because it

Answer: Does not require enough physical activity.

12. This selection can be described as

Answer: An informational text

To Aid and Comfort/Careers in the Nursing Field/Working in Healthcare

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: Career opportunities for people who are interested in healthcare.

2. The author says home health aides work with "clients." Based on this excerpt, why does the author use the term "clients" rather than "patients?"

Answer: Patients are people who receive medical treatment. Home health aides help with daily personal activities.

3. Which two of these classes are required to become a registered nurse?

Answer:

- Psychology
 - Nutrition
-

4. Which job is best for a person who wants to provide hands-on care after spending a year in training?

Answer: Licensed practical nurse

5. According to this selection, what are two causes for the expected increase in demand for RNs?

Answer: Aging population and better access to healthcare

6. Registered nurses tend to earn higher annual salaries than other people with nursing jobs. Why?

Answer: RNs have higher levels of education and training than other kinds of nurses.

7. Place these four options in the nursing field in the order of the amount of schooling needed, listing the greatest amount first.

Answer:

1. Registered nurse

2. Practical nurse

3. Nursing assistant

4. Home health aide

8. States require nurses to pass exams and get licenses. What is the most likely reason for this?

Answer: States want to ensure all nurses are properly trained to do their jobs.

9. The tone of this selection is best described as

Answer: Straightforward and objective.

10. In which way are an RN and LPN alike?

Answer: They both require licenses for employment.

11. In this sentence from the selection, the word "flexible" most closely means

Answer: variable

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that explains why there is a physical requirement for nursing assistants.

Answer: They spend much of their day on their feet, and they must be able to move or turn patients of any size.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

Navajo Heroes/The Secret Words/The Code Talkers

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about World War II and

Answer: How a unique code played a critical role in winning the war.

2. In the Navajo secret code, the word for the subject in this picture meant

Answer: Battleship.

-
3. The code demonstration changed the American general's mind about using the Navajos. Which word best describes the primary factor for the change in the general's opinion?

Answer: Swiftness

4. In this excerpt, what does the word "crack" mean?

Answer: Make sense of

5. Place the following events in order.

Answer:

1. Johnson learns to speak the Navajo language.
 2. Johnson reads a article about code development.
 3. Johnson urges an American general to use Navajos.
 4. Johnson puts on a demonstration of Navajos skills.
-

6. Which sentence supports the statement, "communication is a critical part of any war"?

Answer: If the enemy were to intercept these communications, the element of surprise would be lost.

7. What is the most unusual aspect of the Navajo language?

Answer: It has no alphabet or symbols.

8. According to this selection, for which two items does the military still use Navajo Code terms today?

Answer:

- Running shoes
 - Pens
-

9. Based on this excerpt, what could be considered a "stumbling block" in developing the secret code?

Answer: No Navajo words existed for military equipment.

10. What could happen if a written secret code was carried on the battlefield?

Answer: It could fall into enemy hands if the Code Talker was captured.

11. Which sentence supports the military's decision to use the Navajos as Code Talkers?

Answer: Their languages' strange tones and unusual word arrangement made it almost impossible for non-native speakers to understand.

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. In this excerpt, which phrase explains why the Japanese were frustrated in trying to crack this secret code?

Answer: gurgling noises

[Credit for answer: Me!]

Heads of State/Centers of Government/Seats of government/Seats of power

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: Seats of government are symbols of states and centers of national power.

2. What is meant by proportional representation, such that in Holland?

Answer: The people vote for a political party instead of an individual candidate.

3. Based on the descriptions of seats of power in this selection, where would this one be located?

Answer: Japan

4. The parliament in Japan includes members elected by which two voting systems?

Answer:

- Proportional
 - First-past-the-post
-

5. Based on this excerpt, what type of voting system does the House of Commons use?

Answer: First-past-the-post voting system

6. Which two chambers make the United Kingdom a bicameral type of government?

Answer:

- House of Lords
 - House of Commons
-

7. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that supports the author's statement that a seat of government is a symbol.

Answer: "Citizens often look to their seat of government when they want to define what their nation represents."

8. Which of the following has the most political power in the United Kingdom?

Answer: Prime Minister

9. Read this excerpt. Why is the term "rubber stamp" used to describe how a sovereign approves of government appointments?

Answer: The Sovereign is only symbolically certifying the Prime Minister's choice.

10. Why did the author include this maxim by Confucius in the opening paragraph of the selection?

Answer: The maxim represents the ideal standard for modern representative governments.

11. How are members of the British parliament's house of lords and the Russian federation council similar?

Answer: They both include elite individuals who are appointed to their position

[Credit for answer: fye_lex16 on Quizlet]

12. The author's states that The Hauge has special international importance. What statement best supports this?

Answer: The International Court of Justice and the International Criminal Court are located at the Hauge.

13. What would happen if no candidate won an absolute majority in a Russian presidential election?

Answer: A second election would be held and a winner would be determined by the votes

Your Own Person

[Credit for answers: testpinoy.com]