

A New World Champion/Clay vs Liston/ A shake up in boxing/A clash of champions

[Credit for answers: turtlesarenumber3 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. Which of these is the best alternative title for this selection

Answer: Beat the unbeatable

2. Put these events into the correct order that led to Ali's second victory over Liston starting with the earliest

Answer:

1. Liston went down in the first round
 2. Ali stood over Liston with his arms raised in victory
 3. The referee counted to 10
 4. Liston got to his feet
-

3. If you were watching a clay boxing match you would most likely would see clay

Answer: Dancing around his opponent

4. What made the February 1964 bout one of the most memorable in history?

Answer: Clay's victory was so unexpected

5. What are two possible reasons Clay's eyes were blurred and burning?

Answer:

- The substance Liston's trainer used to stop the bleeding under his eye got into Clay's eyes
 - Liston's trainer put something on Liston's gloves to intentionally sting Clay's eyes
-

6. What evidence does the author include that supports the claim that Liston threw the second fight

Answer: Reporters were not sure Clay had landed the punch

7. Why was the arena only half full for the clay Liston fight?

Answer: Most fans assumed that Liston would score yet another quick victory

8. In describing Clay's physical characteristics the author asserts that Clay was tough to catch. What made him tough to catch?

Answer: Both his hands and feet were fast in the ring

9. Which statement provides the best evidence that Clay and Liston had different fighting styles?

Answer: Clay was swift and mobile but Liston was strong

Many Ways to Measure Time/ horses that fly

[Credit for answers: turtlesarenumber3 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the central idea of this selection

Answer: Scientists have developed many way to measure time

2. These sentences are from the selection. Which two can be considered main ideas of the selection

Answer:

- To measure faster times scientists need a faster(and more accurate) way to count time
 - But science often measures time far outside our human perception
-

3. The author begins the selection with this excerpt mainly to

Answer: Help readers create a picture in their minds that relates to the topic

4. This sentence from the text contains a type of figurative language called

Answer: Personification because it gives a human quality to something that is not human

5. Imagine you are a scientist. If you wanted to witness the start of a nuclear reaction, you would want to use

Answer: Edgerton's "rapatonic" camera.

6. In the selection, the author describes which two of the following as non-science applications for atomic clocks?

Answer:

- Broadcasting

- Global Positioning System (GPS)

7. While E.J. Muybridge's camera could capture a horse's hooves leave the ground, Dr. Harold Edgerton's camera could show how

Answer: A baseball and bat deform like rubber at the moment of impact

8. Read this excerpt from the selection. What does it tell you about tides?

Answer: They can affect the speed of the Earth's daily rotation.

9. The author of this selection says atoms of pure elements can create "the perfect clock" if you are able to Answer: Count the waves of energy released by the atoms.

10. Read these two excerpts from the selection. Together, these excerpts

Answer: Provide examples of how people have learned to measure long periods of time

Philippe Petit: Emperor Of Sky / walking in the clouds

[Credit for answers: loveysmart on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. Main Idea

Answer: A tightrope artist shocks the world.

2. Why does Petit refer to his twin tower walk as "Le Coup"?

Answer: It was done illegal

3. In what way are Philippe Petit and this movie monster similar?

Answer: Both brought worldwide attention.

4. Although he is often described as a daredevil

Answer: Carefully organized and engineered

5. Put these events

Answer:

1. Petit was admitted
 2. Petit agreed to
 3. The documentary
 4. The book
-

6. Choose the sentence.. The figure of speech called a metaphor

Answer: The World Trade Center destruction.

7. Petit first had the idea to walk between the Twin Towers when he was

Answer: Waiting in a dentist office.

8. Based on this excerpt, you can tell that Petit probably

Answer: Never developed a fear of heights.

9. As a teenager, Petit taught himself

Answer:

- Riding a unicycle
 - Landing a backward somersault
-

10. Wire walking is a reflection

Answer: Life should be lived on the edge.

The Life of the First Scientist/Engineer, Anatomist, Painter, Magician

[Credit for answers: turtlesarenumber3 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This section is mainly about the

Answer: Life and inventions of Leonardo da Vinci

2. Read the excerpt. How does the author structure this section of the text?

Answer: Interview

3. Think about your answer to the previous question. In this selection, the author switches from one text structure to another at the end of the selection. Why does the author make this switch?

Answer: To provide another individual's insight on Leonardo da Vinci

4. Choose the sentence that describes the "miracles" Lenardo da Vinci completed due to his passion for experimentation.

Answer: This approach was unheard-of at the time, and it helped him "work miracles ": He unraveled the laws governing plant growth and rules of perspective for such masterpieces as the Last Supper, and developed techniques for casting the largest horse statue in the world.

5. In the selection, Lenardo da Vinci states, "to give orders is a gentleman's work; to carry them out is the act of a servant. "Which trait does this quote reveal about da Vinci?

Answer: Rebellious

6. In this selection Michael White states that Lenardo da Vinci "did work miracles." Which statement from the selection supports this opinion?

Answer: This scientifically accurate visual representation of Wing movements was not duplicated again until the invention of the camera.

7. Based on this excerpt, you can conclude that

Answer: Francis I, King of France, considered Lenardo da Vinci an honored guest.

8. From what you have read, you can conclude that Lenardo da Vinci agreed to build impenetrable war fortress for the "ruthless" Cesare Borgia because

Answer: da Vinci thought war was necessary to preserve freedom.

9. Choose the one sentence from this excerpt that identifies Lenardo's shift from a focus of art to the field of science.

Answer: The spectacular show, including a revolving stage giant, moving display of the planets, convinced the Duke to let Lenardo delve into an array of scientific projects.

10. Read the excerpt. What two things was da Vinci able to do because he was gifted with "super vision"?

Answer:

- Freeze what he saw in his mind and accurately illustrate that image later

- Draw what he could not see in front of him based on calculations about what must be there
-

Ancient Wisdom

[Credit for answers: turtlesarenumber3 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This story is about

Answer: The importance of preserving family heritage.

2. Finding offered to hide the ancient painting. Why?

Answer: He felt it was a way to honor his ancestors, who had protected it in the past under similar circumstances.

3. The conflict in this story was resolved when

Answer: The Red Guards left without harming anyone or finding the hidden painting.

4. Choose the sentence that best explains why the village was the best place to hide the family treasures.

Answer: "This place is remote, and everyone is a Bao, so the family treasures will be safe anywhere here."

5. The pig chase is an important point in the story. Put these events in order in which they happened.

Answer:

1. Finding opened the gate and the pig ran out.
2. Finding tackled the pig not far from the crowd.
3. The squad leader ordered the two villagers to get the pig, but Xinxin let the pig loose again.

4. Didi and Xinxin get the pig from the lotus patch.

6. What is the main conflict in the story?

Answer: Bands of young Zealots were raiding the Villages and destroying cultural artifacts.

7. Based on the two experts, which statement best explains the difference between Didi and Xixi?

Answer: Didi excelled in physical activity, while Xixi was more artistic.

8. Read these two excerpts. This first is from the beginning of the story, and the second is from the end. The change in tone from the first to the second can best be described as

Answer: From frustrated to humorous

9. The twins were surprised to see their cousin Lanlan, because

Answer: She had never been to their village.

10. The original plan was to hide their families heirlooms behind a false wall in the storehouse. However, this plan was forced to change because

Answer: The Red Guards arrived earlier than expected.

11. The point of the pig chase was to Answer: create a diversion to distract the Red Guards.

North Versus South/The Union and the Confederacy

[Credit for answers: turtlesarenumber3 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: Key events that shaped and ended the Civil War

2. By the end of 1863, the outlook for the Confederacy looked grim. Which two events led to this outlook?

Answer:

- England and France decided to stay out of the war.
 - Southern ports were blockaded by the Union.
-

3. This selection can be best described as informational nonfiction because it

Answer: Gives facts and details about a specific topic.

4. Read these experts. During spring of 1863, the North and South were both

Answer: Struggling

5. Read this excerpt. The use of dates in the part shows that the author is mainly using a

Answer: Chronological order text structure.

6. Which sentence from the selection supports the idea that Robert E. Lee felt Stonewall Jackson was essential to the war?

Answer: Jackson may have lost his left arm, but I have lost my right arm.

7. According to the selection, many people feel the turning point of the Civil War was the

Answer: Emancipation Proclamation

8. Choose the one sentence from the expert that confirms why the Union Army kept trying to take Chattanooga.

Answer: The Union wanted to use the city as a base to cut the Confederacy in two, by driving the rebel army to the sea.

9. The Emancipation Proclamation would lead to Answer: Enslavement ending in the South.

10. Read this excerpt. Choose the one sentence that provides a possible reason the Confederate army chose Gettysburg as their best battle ground.

Answer: Some historians state the Confederate soldiers had learned of a stockpile of shoes in the town, which the soldiers needed badly.

Forest of the Righteous Gentiles/The Courage of the Huguenots

[Credit for answers: turtlesarenumber3 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. Which sentence from the selection best expresses the central idea?

Answer: Here in Le Chambon-sur-Lignon, more than sixty years ago, occurred one of the largest rescues of Jews persecuted by the Nazis.

2. Based on what you have read, what did Andre the Protestant youth leaders do when the head of the region came to capture the Jews in Le Chambon?

Answer: They warned the Jewish people to hide

3. The previous question asked what the townspeople did when the officials came to collect the Jews. Which sentence best helped you with your answer?

Answer: Andre gathered the Protestant youth leaders and charged them to warn the Jews to flee.

4. Other than hiding the Jewish people in their town, how else did the Huguenotes defy their law officials?

Answer:

- They ignored government commands to bring church bells
 - They refused to post pictures of the government sanctioned individuals
-

5. Choose the two sentences from Thailand excerpt that support why the people of Le Chambon were motivated to help the Jewish people in 1934.

Answer:

- These French Protestants called Huguenots, had lived in this area since 1459, but the Catholic monarchs of France oppressed and persecuted them.
 - But they never forgot the affliction they suffered at the hands of their fellow Frenchmen.
-

6. Read these two excerpts from the selection. How does the mood shift from Excerpt 1 to Excerpt 2?

Answer: From melancholy to hopeful

7. Which sentence correctly describes the organization pattern used by the author in this selection?

Answer: The selection uses chronological order to highlight when historical events occurred

8. Read this excerpt from the selection. What does the information in this excerpt suggest?

Answer: The people of Le Chambon found ways to keep Jewish people safe from the Nazis

9. Based on the information in this selection, Andre and Magda can best be described as

Answer: Caring about the lives of the Jewish individuals living in Le-Chambon-sur-Lignon

10. Which evidence does the author present in the selection to support Magda's sentiments expressed in this quotation?

Answer: Anecdotes of how Magda and Andre assisted with hiding the Jewish people of their town

The Risks of Beauty/A Test of Love

[Credit for answers: idk35692 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. The selection is mainly about the

Answer: Pitfalls of perfect beauty

2. Put these activities in the sequence in which Cupid performed them while obeying his mothers orders

Answer:

1. Cupid drops some bitter water onto Psyche's lips
 2. Cupid touches Psyche's side with the tip of his arrow
 3. Cupid wounded himself with one of his arrows
 4. Cupid pours sweet water over Psyche's curly hair
-

3. What does this excerpt say about the Greek concept of beauty?

Answer: Beauty is a great quality of value

4. Choose two sentences that demonstrate reactions of surprise

Answer: Second and fourth sentence

5. Which two incidents did Psyche disobey directives from the gods?

Answer:

- She brings a lamp to view her husband's face during the night

- She opens the box of beauty given to her by Persephone
-

6. The advice of Psyche's sisters to see her husband is probably motivated by

Answer: envy

7. What conclusion can be drawn from Cupid's desire to keep his appearance hidden from Psyche?

Answer: He wanted Psyche to have unconditional love

8. How did Psyche complete the tasks given to her by Venus?

Answer: By getting help from other gods

9. The author uses Psyche's decision to see her husband's face to show

Answer: A betrayal of trust

10. Why is Cupid not an understanding and compassionate lover?

Answer: He forgives Psyche for letting her curiosity get the better of her twice

Places for Learning and Fun

[Credit for answers: kiera1232123 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. The selection is mainly about the

Answer: Efforts of museums to attract new visitors

2. How have museums changed over the past few years?

Answer: They have become more lively and visitor friendly.

3. Based on this excerpt, what problem were museums facing that motivated them to make changes...

Answer: Visitors were aging and younger people were not...

4. Attracting children to museums was considered a solution...

Answer: Children who visit museums are more likely to become...

5. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that explains...

Answer: Scavenger hunts are a natural fit, as if they...

6. Put them in the right order...

Answer:

1. Parents cell phone
 2. Children look at the art work
 3. They answer questions
 4. They recreate the drawings
-

7. The author states that parents and children can take place...

Answer: Egypt, greece

8. How does this picture relate to...

Answer: Families can learn about...

9. From this excerpt you could conclude...

Answer: Community centers

10. Which of the following provides...

Answer: Attendance at the museums

Is It Skill or Luck?/Scoresbey's Secrets/Hero or Fool?

[Credit for answers: Darwin186 on Quizlet]

RATE 2 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about...

Answer: How luck can give a person false reputation

2. What does the author do to make...

Answer: He says it was told to him by an honest

3. In this excerpt what does the banquet guest mean...

Answer: The guest felt inspired

4. What motivated the clergyman to help...

Answer: sympathy

5. This excerpt explains how...

Answer:

- I could just barely have stood...
 - I thought about my hair..
-

6. The clergyman felt guilty...

Answer: Do something to show

7. What does this excerpt tell you...

Answer: People mistook

8. At the end of the selection...

Answer: Why was the clergyman the only one to know

9. In this excerpt, the narrator's tone...

Answer: Frustrated

10. Based on what you read, this selection...

Answer: Uses sarcasm and ridicule

11. Based on what you have read, what would be considered Scoreby's greatest public stroke of luck?

Answer: Discovering the Russian army reserves

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. Which of the following describe Scoresby?

Answer: modest, trusting, and clueless

[Credit for answer: Me!]

13. What does the author do to make this selection seem like a true story?

Answer: He says it was told to him by an honest clergyman.

From Wild to Tame/Ancestors of the Dog

[Credit for answers: theylovelex4 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. The main idea of this selection deals with:

Answer: How dogs became the earliest domesticated animal

2. How are scientists determining how far dogs go back in history?

Answer: By conducting DNA analyses on dogs

3. Which of these animals first became pets in Egypt 5,500 years ago.

Answer: Cat

4. Which two statements about modern dogs are accurate?

Answer:

- They are related to the gray wolf
 - They are probably related to wolves that once lived in china.
-

5. Which list of words best describe the similarities between wolves and ancient humans?

Answer: Hunter, territorial, organized, social

6. Which activity did wolves do probably help them most in becoming less afraid of people

Answer: Stealing people's food

7. How does this image relate to the selection?

Answer: Experts believe food waste and trash heaps helped wolves fully develop into dogs.

8. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that best summarizes how a person would selectively breed an animal

Answer: When our ancestor found a wolf whose behavior or looks they liked, they kept it and mate it with another wolf that had the same desirable features.

9. Which other two traits do dogs have that wolves do not?

Answer:

- Multi-colored coats
 - Barking
-

10. Which animal is best at reading human cues?

Answer: Dog

11. The genre of this text can best be described as

Answer: Informational nonfiction

[Credit for answer: Me!]

12. The selection states that domestication caused physical changes. Domesticated dogs have smaller skulls, brains, and teeth than wolves. Which other two traits do dogs have that their wolf ancestors did not?

Answer:

- Multi-colored coats
- Barking

[Credit for answer: Me!]

13. In this excerpt, the word "journey" represents

Answer: The domestication of dogs from wolves over time

[Credit for answer: Me!]

Going for Gold

[Credit for answers: pateln0739 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection mainly focuses on

Answer: Memorable moments in Olympic figure skating.

2. Based on what you have read, you can infer that skating at the 1968 Olympics would have been an emotional event for Peggy Fleming. Why?

Answer: Just seven years earlier, the entire U.S. figure skating team had been killed in a plane crash.

3. Read this excerpt from the selection and one from another source. Which question do these excerpts raise?

Answer: How will competitive figure skaters push the limits when there are no new jumps to master?

4. What do these two excerpts demonstrate about the sport of figure skating?

Answer: The evolving athleticism and risk-taking in the sport

5. In 2010, 19-year-old Mao Asada became the first woman to land two triple Axels in one Olympic performance. What was surprising about this?

Answer: Despite making Olympic history, she still lost the gold medal to her rival Yuna Kim.

6. Select the one sentence in this excerpt that contains a figurative expression.

Answer: "It was a huge, huge loss that cut our sport at the knees," Fleming said later.

7. Which skater is credited with giving hope to figure skating when a plane crash killed the entire skating team along with their coaches?

Answer: Peggy Fleming

8. The author's purpose in writing this selection was most likely to

Answer: Present information about notable stories in the sport of competitive figure skating.

9. Read this excerpt from the selection. In the context of this excerpt, the closest synonym for "compulsory" is

Answer: Mandatory

10. Michelle Kwan, considered by many to be the greatest skater in the world,

Answer: Has never won a gold medal at the Olympics.

A Spooky Summer Vacation Part 2

[Credit for answers: PickleNasty17 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mostly about how Lorelai

Answer: And her cousin both see a ghost

2. Another word for quagmire

Answer: Swamp

3. Part two is described as

Answer: Fiction

4. She hoped the ghost would appear again because

Answer: Try to communicate with her

5. Tom had

Answer: Never heard the little girl speak

6. Why did she wake up

Answer: The floorboards creaked as the steps grew nearer....

7. Why did she feel uneasy

Answer: She realized what she heard was not Uncle Henry

8. Choose the sentence

Answer: And she pointed to the floor

9. What does Tom think it is

Answer: A medieval church, an old house

10. Why did Tom ask if she could see her

Answer: He thought he was the only one who could see her

A Spooky Summer Vacation Part 3

[Credit for answers: yenoor60 on Quizlet]

[Picture description: Picture of a girl standing next to a bed looking at a smaller girl]

RATE 4 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about how

Answer: Two cousins were able to solve a problem with a ghost

2. At the end of the story, how was the main problem solved?

Answer: Lorelai and Tom finally returned Josephine back to the ghost.

3. Read these two excerpts from the story. How did Tom change from Part 1 to Part 3?

Answer: He became more adventurous

4. When Tom and Lorelai were in the library, what problem did they encounter?

Answer: They could not figure out what the ghost wanted.

5. Which two of the following happened to Lorelai when the ghost appeared in the secret room?

Answer:

- She had goosebumps.
 - Her hands trembled.
-

6. Read these two excerpts. Most likely the ruins Lorelai and Tom looked at in Part 2 were

Answer: The remains of the Wallingford Manor fire.

7. Which sentence for the story provides evidence to the claim that Lorelai would like to visit her family again?

Answer: Next summer's trip couldn't come soon enough.

8. Read this excerpt. In the excerpt, what caused Lorelai to keep removing panels?

Answer: She thought it might help them uncover what the ghost wanted.

9. A simile is a figure of speech that compares two things. Choose the one sentence for this excerpt that is an example of the figurative language simile.

Answer: Tom was so white, he almost looked like a corpse.

10. Based on what you have read, put the following events in the correct order in which they happened, starting with the earliest.

Answer:

1. The ghost appeared and pointed to the library.
 2. Lorelai found a secret opening in a wall in the house.
 3. Tom and Lorelai discovered why the ghost wants Josephine.
 4. The family discovers new knowledge about their home.
-

11. if you want to read more stories like this one, you could choose a book that is a.

Answer: mystery

Full-Timing Families/On The Road Again

[Credit for answers: MigueVibes on Quizlet]

[Picture description: The story image is an RV, motorhome, House-Truck]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: Families who live in RV's full time

2. In the selection the author compares full-time RVing to

Answer: Being on a constant field trip

3. According to the selection, RV's are self-sufficient, Which two reasons explain what this means?

Answer:

- They carry their own water
 - They supply their own electricity
-

4. Read this excerpt. Which of the following best summarizes the theme of this selection?

Answer: Home is where your family is.

5. The word "perennially" in this sentence from the selection could be replaced with the word?

Answer: Consistently

6. Read the excerpt. The author's purpose for beginning the selection this way is to?

Answer: Grab the reader's attention

7. Read this excerpt. To find some privacy while living in an RV, you most likely need to?

Answer: Think creatively to find a place to be alone.

8. Some RVers decide to eliminate possessions when moving into the RV. They choose what to keep by?

Answer: Checking how useful the things are compared to how much space, water, and power they use.

9. Read these two excerpts. The Goza family and the White family are alike in that they both?

Answer: Operate family businesses out of their RVs

10. Choose the sentence in the excerpt that supports the claim that trailers assisted soldiers who had fought for the United States?

Answer: By the end of World War II, trailers built quickly and inexpensively in factories were serving as houses for multitudes of returning veterans.

Pillownauts

[Credit for answers: MigueVibes on Quizlet]

[Picture description: It is a man laying on a bed looking at a screen and the story was made by Jeniffer Mason]

RATE 5 STARS

1. The selection mainly

Answer: Highlights the research NASA does on earth to help keep humans healthy in space

2. Why is NASA trying to make essential resources "in situ" on alien planets, moons, and asteroids?

Answer: Humans could not fit everything they need to survive in outer space into a spaceship

3. How was a hurricane on Earth able to disrupt "pillownaut" Heather Archuletta's space mission?

Answer: She was not in space but at the human test subject facility in Galveston, Texas

4. Scientists recreate situations astronauts will encounter in outer space. This is an image of the Concordia substation in Antarctica. Scientists here study the long-term effects of?

Answer: Isolation

5. What happened to Heather Archuletta when she had to leave the tilt bed to evacuate during a hurricane? Put the effects on her body in order, beginning with what happened first.

Answer:

1. Blood rushed into her feet and legs
 2. Sudden swelling in her legs and feet caused knife-like pain.
 3. She ran into a wall because she was unable to perceive distance...
 4. She collapsed because her bones and muscles could no longer...
-

6. Why does Devon Island in Canada make a perfect stand-in for Mars?

Answer: It is far from civilization, with barren terrain, freezing temperatures, restricted communication, and wacky day/night cycles.

7. Read these two excerpts. Both describe?

Answer: Experiments that take place on Earth to support space missions

8. According to the text, pillownauts are required to do which two of the following activities while lying down?

Answer:

- Eating
- Showering

9. Which aspects of a space mission does a Human Exploration Research Analog (HERA) study examine?

Answer: Confinement, Isolation, and problem-solving

10. Read this excerpt from this selection. Based on the excerpt, loss of gravity affects an astronaut's health in which way?

Answer: Fluids shifting and bones weakening

Spray Can Painter

[Credit for answers: chocolate_pie79 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: The controversy...

2. Choose one sentence....

Answer: If not...

3. It's ironic that

Answer: Has attracted more

4. By attempting to

Answer: Aimed to focus

5. According to this expert

Answer: Repetitive, comments

6. Why has the subject

Answer: The rat image was used first by another

7. Banksy main

Answer: Speed up the process

8. London olympics

Answer: Political

9. What did people mean

Answer: abandoned his principles

10. Based on this expert how did

Answer: Humor to mock himself

Echolocation

[Credit for answers: notgyro on Quizlet]

[Picture description: The picture is the ocean.]

RATE 5 STARS

1. Which sentence from the selection best conveys the central idea?

Answer: Ecological mapping gives researchers insight into living things and their habitats.

2. Choose the sentence from this excerpt that confirms the value to marine scientists of underwater microphones called hydrophones

Answer: This acoustic technology allows marine scientists to more quickly survey an area to get an idea of the organisms found there.

3. Read these two excerpts. How does the author structure these excerpts similarly?

Answer: By describing what scientist experience as they observe marine life

4. Read this excerpt. Which definition of "deploy" does the author use in this excerpt?

Answer: To arrange for a deliberate purpose

5. In this excerpt, when describing scientists, the author mainly focuses on the

Answer: Conditions marine scientist deal with on the open seas

6. What is the author's purpose in writing the selection?

Answer: Informational

7. Read these excerpts. Together, what do these excerpts suggest about life at sea on a research vessel?

Answer: Scientist on research vessels make use of all hours of the day and night well at sea

8. Based on what you have read, which two factors do scientists consider when studying the ecology of the shelf?

Answer: Characteristics of water and biological elements

9. The author includes an author's note at the end of this selection. What additional information does this contribute to the selection?

Answer: It introduces a new method scientists are using to study marine life

10. Which sentence from the selection best reveals the impact humans have on marine life?

Answer: Scientist believe that the noise we create in the ocean is changing how certain species communicate, find a place to settle, or navigate

The People's Park/A Vision for the Public

[Credit for answers: notgyro on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This section mainly...

Answer: Recounts the history and people involved in the design and construction of New York's Central Park.

2. Read this excerpt from the selection and one from another source. What sort of picture do they provide about the work of the sanitary commission?

Answer: As hard as they tried, the Sanitary Commission could not save everyone from disease

3. By describing Frederick Olmstead's work on two important projects, the author intended to convince the reader that Olmstead

Answer: Was a strong and committed leader

4. This is an image of Central Park today. From this image what can you tell that Central Park?

Answer: Remains a major recreational center for the city of New York

5. In what way were the Park pathways proposed in the Greensward plan to consider innovation?

Answer: The main paths were designed to run below the park surface to avoid disrupting the view

6. Read this excerpt, The details in this excerpt are intended to convey to the reader that

Answer: The project was a massive undertaking

7. What was the effect of the Central Park project on Frederick Olmsted?

Answer: He suffered from the exhaustion and injuries

8. I like the sentence that best explains why Frederick Olmsted could not join the Navy during the Civil War

Answer: He toyed with the idea of joining the Navy, but a series accident happened the year before, he was thrown from a carriage, had left him with a limp

9. What was Frederick Olmstead's goal in excluding elaborate roads and architecture from the park?

Answer: To design a park for the enjoyment of all people, not just for show

10. The more than 840 acres of land the city took from Central Park was sad to lack monetary value. Which detail from the text contradicts that idea?

Answer: It was home to about 1600 poor residents, including farmers and African-American settlements

The World's Most Traveled Dog

[Credit for answers: Nicolas_Machado- on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about a

Answer: Unique dog that had unusual travel experiences.

2. Owney became the mascot for the Railway Mail Service after he

Answer: Wandered into the post office in Albany.

3. Owney's around-the-world trip involved transportation by

Answer: Train and Steamship

4. In this excerpt, what does "The wanderlust bug had seriously infected Owney" mean?

Answer: Owney was afflicted with a strong yearning to travel.

5. Which two items provide evidence that Owney really did visit many places around the world?

Answer:

- Tags from post offices
 - Coin to redeem for products
-

6. Why did the postal workers consider Owney a lucky charm?

Answer: He never traveled on a train that crashed.

7. While on the steamship to Japan, Owney's traveling conditions should be described as

Answer: Comfortable and Attentive

8. Where are the remains of Owney in this image located?

Answer: Washington, D.C

9. In this excerpt, the warning accompanying Owney's official Japanese passport has a tone that can be considered

Answer: Amusing

10. Choose the sentence in this excerpt that explains the educational aspect of the Traveling Owney Project.

Answer: The children in each classroom would learn about the places Owney visited, calculate the miles he traveled, and find out weather and geography in other parts of the country.

The Missing Species/ A Frozen Solution

[Credit for answers: ella_pierre on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: Rocky Mountain locusts and why may have happened to them.

2. This text gives facts and statistics about an extinct insect species. This text can be described as

Answer: informational.

3. According to the selection, which two methods did settlers use in attempt to fight off the locusts

Answer:

- Clanged pots and pans.
 - Blasted fields with dynamite.
-

4. What were Lockwood and DeBrey hoping to find in the glaciers?

Answer: Bodies of the Rocky Mountain locust.

5. Read this excerpt. Why did that author use this short narrative to start this selection?

Answer: To explain the focus of the rest of the text.

6. Choose the one sentence that supports how Lockwood and Debrey solved the great grasshopper mystery.

Answer: "Instead of focusing on the swarming phases of the locust--and trying to explain the disappearance of trillions..."

7. Read these two excerpts. How are Rocky Mountain locusts and Monarch butterflies the same

Answer: Transformations made to the environment caused habitat changes for both species.

8. Choose the one sentence from this excerpt that describes the effect the locust plague had on animals

Answer: "Livestock had to survive on whatever tough prairie grasses and corn stalks they found left over"

9. Read this excerpt. Rocky Mountain locusts are

Answer: Grasshopper-like insects that can form massive groups, called swarms.

10. Which sentence from the selection explains what causes a locust plague

Answer: They mass together in gigantic mobs and take to the air in search of food.