

The Shower of Light

[Credit for answers: pnishtha885 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: How meteoroids, meteorites and meteors affect the earth.

2. Reread this excerpt. What conclusion can be made about iron meteorites?

Answer: They were useful to people in ancient times

3. A meteoroid is a piece of space matter that

Answer: Passes through the earth's atmosphere.

4. In this part of the selection, the author calls a meteoroid an "alien" because it

Answer: Comes from space

5. Which sentence from the selection suggests the idea that most meteorites are not dangerous?

Answer: They are most likely to be the size of a pebble or a particle of dirt than the size of a van.

6. Some meteoroids are large enough to damage the earth. By tracking the movements of meteoroids, scientists hope to Answer: Find them and push them out of the way before they hit the earth.

7. Reread the end of the selection. What is the author's attitude towards meteor showers?

Answer: They are harmless natural events that are beautiful and fun to watch.

8. Why is it sometimes difficult for scientists who study outer space to find even large meteoroids?

Answer: Meteoroids do not give up their own light and can be seen only if they reflect sunlight.

9. Meteor showers happen when

Answer: Many single meteoroids break off from comets and burn up as they pass through the sky in a group.

10. Reread this except. In the last sentence, why is the phrase "very close" in quotes?

Answer: To show how a large distance in outer space can be thought of as small

Twinkle On, Little Stars!

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 4 STARS

1. This selection is mostly about stars and

Answer: How constellations are a part of both culture and science.

2. Before humans had modern technology, people in some areas used the stars to Answer: Measure the seasons of the year.

3. What is astronomy?

Answer: The science of studying stars

4. How many named constellations do we have today?

Answer: 88

5. Read this excerpt. What is the purpose of the second and third sentences?

Answer: To support a statement given in the first sentence

6. How is this selection written?

Answer: As a non-fictional piece that gives information

7. Read this excerpt. How did sailors use the "secret" of the North Star?

Answer: They used the North Star's fixed location as a tool to help them guide their ships to new lands.

8. Based on this excerpt, how are the stars in the nighttime sky today different from those that early humans saw?

Answer: The stars at night are harder to see today because the lights from cities make the sky less dark.

9. How do these two parts of the selection work together?

Answer: The first part shows how stars were important in old stories while the second one shows how stars were helpful tools.

10. What does it mean when a constellation is described as "flat?"

Answer: The stars in a constellation appear to be close together but they are really very far apart.

Danger in the Depths

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. What is the major theme in this selection?

Answer: The importance of proper training

2. Based on the information given in the selection, what is an alligator gar?

Answer: A type of fish

3. The author states that Adam and Tony had never done any deep cave diving before. Why is this important to know?

Answer: They wouldn't know the dangers that come with deep cave diving.

4. In this excerpt, what does the phrase "on the road" most closely mean?

Answer: Traveling

5. Based on what you have read, what will Adam and Tony most likely do before they go diving again ?

Answer: Take deep cave diving lessons

6. Reread this excerpt. What does it suggest about the signal for help that Tony uses?

Answer: It is known and understood by trained divers.

7. Based on what you have read, what is the Ginnie Ballroom?

Answer: A large underwater cavern

8. Reread these two excerpts. Which best describes the change in mood from the first excerpt to the second?

Answer: Calm to fearful

9. Adam asked Bob and Danny, "So will you rescue me from my mom?" What makes him say this?

Answer: He knows his nervous mother will not want him to go diving again.

10. What event caused Adam to have serious problems?

Answer: His breathing hose got caught on a sharp piece of rock.

Smart Survivors

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 4 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about crows and

Answer: How they live and what makes them special.

2. Based on what you read, scientists are fascinated by crows mostly because of the crows'

Answer: Large brains.

3. How is a crow like a child?

Answer: A crow likes to play games and have fun.

4. What is the author's tone in this part of the selection?

Answer: Informative and humorous

5. Why is it likely that most people have seen a crow?

Answer: They live everywhere except Antarctica.

6. Based on what you read, about a crow's nest are correct? which two statements

Answer:

- The nest is made with sticks and leaves and held together by mud and grass.
 - Males and female crows work together to build the nest.
-

7. Based on this excerpt, what is one way in which people help crows?

Answer: They run over nut shells and then crows can eat the nuts inside.

8. In this part of the selection, which two characteristics help the crow get to the pig heart?

Answer:

- Determination

- Intelligence
-

9. A group of crows can go by two different names. What are the two names?

Answer:

- A flock
 - A murder
-

10. Read this excerpt. Based on how it is used, what does the phrase "it's a place to crow about" most closely mean?

Answer: It's a great place for birds.

#BLM: A Call to Action Part 1

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. This text is mainly about the death of Trayvon Martin and the Answer: History of the #BlackLivesMatter movement.

2. Read this part from the text. The word "acquitted" in the last sentence tells you that Zimmerman was

Answer: Found not guilty of a crime.

3. The previous question asked about George Zimmerman's trial. Based on your answer to that question, which sentence from the text shows one effect of that?

Answer: It sparked fury in many people who felt the law did not protect black Americans as it should.

4. Read this part from the text and one from another source. What does the second part tell you about the first?

Answer: Where Trayvon Martin had been the night he was killed wait

5. Which detail from this text shows what sparked protests across Ferguson after Michael Brown's death?

Answer: Michael Brown was unarmed when he was killed by a police officer.

6. Michael Brown, an unarmed 18-year-old black teenager, was killed by police officer Darren Wilson on August 9, 2014. Based on this text, which two statements about this event are correct?

Answer:

- Witnesses to the shooting had differing accounts of what happened.
 - Wilson was never charged for Michael Brown's death.
-

7. The hashtag #BlackLivesMatter was created in response to Answer: The murder of Trayvon Martin.

8. Based on what you have read, a major issue leading to the American Civil War was

Answer: Disagreement about slavery between the northern states and those in the South.

9. Look closely at this image of a waiting room for "colored people." Based on what you have read, which sentence from this text goes with what this image is showing?

Answer: In the 1870s and 1880s, some states passed laws called "Jim Crow" laws.

10. Which genre best describes this selection?

Answer: Informational text

#BLM: A Call to Action Part 2

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 4 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about the

Answer: Movement that is empowering communities to stand up for racial justice and equality.

2. Read this part of the text. Choose the best title for this part if it was a chapter in a book.

Answer: Bigger than football

3. Some people oppose BLM. According to Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, some think racism is a problem of the past because they

Answer: May not see racism in themselves or their communities.

4. Read this part of the text. The word "dignity" helps readers understand that BLM is fighting for the right of black Americans to Answer: Be valued and respected.

5. BLM founder Alicia Garza says it is "obvious" that all lives matter. She argues that #AllLivesMatter misses the point. What does she mean?

Answer: Black people in the U.S. are more likely to be treated unfairly and to be killed by police.

6. Which genre best describes this selection?

Answer: Informational text

7. Read this part from the text and one from another source. What does the second part help you understand about the first?

Answer: Which event sparked the BLM movement

8. Samuel Sinyangwe is a data analyst. He uses his skills to help the BLM movement by

Answer: Collecting and publishing information on police killings across the nation.

9. What made it difficult for Samuel Sinyangwe to collect data about police violence in the United States?

Answer: There was no system for collecting records of deaths caused by police.

10. Choose the two sentences that best show why Colin Kaepernick chose to kneel for the National Anthem.

Answer:

- "But Kaepernick knelt to show his support for the Black Lives Matter movement."
 - "Kaepernick said he was not willing to show pride in his country while it oppressed its black citizens."
-

Leafy Hunters: Plants That Kill

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: Carnivorous plants catch their prey in different ways.

2. In this excerpt, what image of the Venus flytrap does the author create?

Answer: The image of a scary monster

3. Why do carnivorous plants eat meat?

Answer: They don't get enough nitrogen from the soil in which they grow.

4. Why does the pitcher plant use chemicals to turn its food into soup?

Answer: The plant has no mouth, teeth, or stomach to chew and digest the food.

5. A leaf on a Venus flytrap will close if

Answer: An insect brushes against the hairs on the leaf.

6. This excerpt states, "Dinner is served." What does this mean?

Answer: The insect can't escape, so the plant can eat it.

7. What do the bladders on a bladderwort do?

Answer: They are the plant's traps.

8. Of plant does this picture show? Based on the descriptions in the selection, what type

Answer: A Venus flytrap

9. Why does the author say carnivorous plants "have a lot to fear from us"?

Answer: People are destroying the places where the plants live.

10. How do these two excerpts work together?

Answer: The first states that carnivorous plants are in danger; the second states that new laws will protect them.

From Wild Child to Success Story/Birdman: Skateboard King

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about

Answer: A man who is the best in the world at his sport.

2. The selection states that the X Games in 1995 included

Answer: Skating, BMX biking, and motocross.

3. In this excerpt, the word "master" most closely means

Answer: Learn.

4. Before a skater can learn the hardest skateboard tricks, he or she must

Answer: Learn how to do an Olle

5. According to the selection, high insurance costs led to Answer: Skate park closures.

6. In this excerpt, what does the phrase "good to him" mean?

Answer: Helped him make a lot of money

7. From what you have read, which of the following is true about the X Games?

Answer: Skaters take turns as they try to perform tricks.

8. What are the two main kinds of skateboarding?

Answer:

- Vert
 - Street
-

9. When Tony was a teenager, people started calling him "Birdman" because he

Answer: Looked like a flying bird when he rode his skateboard high in the air.

Gecko Power

[Credit for answers: kaybae_95 on Quizlet]

RATE 5 STARS

1. What is the main idea of this selection?

Answer: A scientist works to find out how geckos stick to surfaces.

2. The selection states that human-made setae could be used to build gecko robots for rescue missions and exploring planets. In which other two ways could human-made setae be used?

Answer:

- Extremely small artificial setae could be used in microsurgery or making computer chips.
 - Astronauts could use gecko adhesive tape to attach equipment to spaceships.
-

3. How does the animal in this image connect to this selection?

Answer: Dr. Autumn saw a gecko attack a big black spider on the ceiling of his hotel room.

4. The selection states that Tokay geckos, the largest of all geckos, do not make good pets for two reasons. What are the reasons?

Answer:

- They bark loudly.
 - They are not friendly.
-

5. Nanotechnology is the branch of science

Answer: In which atoms and molecules are used to build extremely small devices.

6. Dr. Autumn stated that his team could not get a seta to stick to anything because they had "reduced the gecko to a single hair." How did they change their method?

Answer: Instead of looking at how a single hair worked, they looked at how all the hairs worked together.

7. Based on these two excerpts, which two statements about van der Waals attractions are correct?

Answer:

- They are named after Johannes van der Waals, the Dutch physicist who discovered them.
 - They happen when the positive and negative force of atoms attract each other.
-

8. What are setae?

Answer: Microscopic hairs that cover the foot of a gecko

9. An analogy is a comparison between two things. Choose the sentence in this excerpt gives an example of an analogy.

Answer: The animals place the palms of their feet first, then uncurl their toes, "like a party favor that uncurls when you blow into it," says Dr. Autumn.

10. Based on this excerpt, what does the word "repels" most closely mean?

Answer: Pushes away

A Fishy Problem

[Credit for answers: Mari_109 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about how a girl who

Answer: Conducted an investigation to answer a question

2. At the beginning of the text, Kayla wondered if

Answer: Restaurants were using smelt roe instead of tobiko roe in their sushi.

3. Choose the sentence in this part that explains the results of the investigation from the text.

Answer: Her research showed that there was a 98 probability that the fish eggs...

4. Read this part of the text. The author used words inside parentheses to

Answer: Give the reader extra information

5. During the investigation, Kayla mashed up the eggs to

Answer: Break them into their smallest parts

6. In this part of the text, the word "extracting" most closely means

Answer: Removing

7. This image connects to the text by

Answer: Providing an example of fish eggs used in the investigation

8. Based on the text, which statement about FINS is correct?

Answer: FINS looks closely at DNA to identify different organisms

9. Read this part from the text. Which sentence best summarizes this part?

Answer: Dr. Davidson helped create FINS to assist with solving a problem.

10. What was Kayla's hypothesis for her investigation?

Answer: Cheaper fish eggs were being substituted for the fish eggs that should be in sushi.

The Mountain Climber/Just like his father

[Credit for answers: Mari_109 on Quizlet]

RATE 3 STARS

1. This selection is mainly about a teen boy who

Answer: Wanted to climb mountains, as his father did

2. What does the mountain in this image have to do with the characters in this selection?

Answer: Everest was named after Mount Everest

3. Choose the sentence in this paragraph that describes the change Everest saw in his mothers face

Answer: "She was still thin, with brown hair, but something about her face..."

4. How do these two exceptions compare to or contrast with each other?

Answer: The first shows how Everest's mother did not want him to climb at all. The second shows how she eventually changed her mind

5. In this excerpt, both avalanches and crevasses can be described as

Answer: Natural events that are risks when climbing a very tall mountain.

6. Read this excerpt. The words "snowbound", "sickness", "frostbite", and "suffering" give the idea that mountain climbing can be

Answer: Uncomfortable and dangerous

7. Who is the narrator in this selection?

Answer: Everest

8. Everest's mother did not want him to climb because she believed mountain climbing was too

Answer: Dangerous

9. In this exception, Everest asked his mother...

Answer: Convince her to see the argument about climbing from his point of view

10. Based on what you read, Everest's father

Answer: Died when Everest was very young.

11. In this excerpt, what does the phrase "squirreled away" most closely mean?

Answer: Collected and hidden